

VACCINATION INFORMATION

---

At Gallagher Pediatrics one of the most important things we do for children is vaccinating according to the CDC Guidelines. While there are always special cases- for example a child who is having chemotherapy and can't have live vaccines- we expect our patients to work with us to protect childrens' health with standard vaccination protocols. We are happy to assist you in finding another pediatrician if you do not vaccinate your children.